Historical source: NAXIA

continued from the previous page

[Margin: Naxia / Nazareth.]

Thus all the classes of officers, ~~semen,~~ seamen, and marines, who have faithfully served in the ~~many,~~ navy, are provided for by the state; and the children of such as may be in indigent circumstances receive an education at the public expense, suited to their condition in life. The total expense of the navy, including every branch of the service, civil and military, for one whole year, about ~~Nazas~~ the middle of the last war, may be estimated ~~as~~ at about ~~1,18,000,000: in~~ L.18,000,000. In the year ~~1927,~~ 1822, according to the ~~existence~~ estimates which were laid before ~~parliament. It assumed~~ parliament, it amounted to about ~~3,400,000/00:~~ L.5,000,000: and in the year ~~1537~~ 1837 it has been fixed at the sum of ~~LA,663,000.~~ L.4,663,000. (a) size. The table service ~~combined~~ consisted altogether of ~~power,~~ pewter, but ~~over~~ every thing was extremely clean, and the ~~providents~~ provisions were excellent, particularly fine ~~viteshot~~ wheaten bread, and wine from Mount Lebanon, not inferior to the wines of France. The church belonging to the ~~monetary~~ monastery is erected over a ~~groto,~~ grotto, which is believed to have belonged to the Virgin Mary. In this place are shown her kitchen and ~~the places~~ fire-place; and by way of ~~animals pulled it~~ miracle a pillar is exhibited, the capital of which, separated from the ~~shafts,~~ shaft, is represented as self-supported in the ~~are.~~ air. Dr Clarke, however, soon observed that it was ~~restored to~~ fastened into the wall above. Mr Buckingham was shown a second ~~grito,~~ grotto, or a continuation of the first, with two red granite pillars of about two feet in diameter at ~~the~~ its entrance; and he was told that the one marked the spot where the Virgin rested, the other where the angel stood when ~~the signal was either be powered~~ he appeared to Mary. The church erected over this sacred spot is large, and ~~yet~~ well furnished with paintings, mostly ~~cloudy than~~ gaudy, though there were a few ~~one~~ not altogether devoid of merit. The synagogue in which Jesus read and ~~exempleat~~ expounded the ~~people! Esasia~~ prophet Esaias is shown here ~~with~~ within the ~~box;~~ town; the ~~prestige~~ precipice from which his enemies would have thrown him down is also pointed out; and, according to ~~the Buckets,~~ Mr Buckingham, it is not ~~impossible~~ improbable that this precipice, which overlooks the town, ~~as~~ was the scene of this ~~outages.~~ outrage. But the most ~~evacuated~~ venerated relic is a stone called the table of ~~Christ~~ Christ, from which he is asserted to have eaten before and after his resurrection. Nazareth ~~forum and~~ forms part of the ~~use~~ paschalik of ~~Aros,~~ Acre, and was reduced to ~~Indigneed~~ indigence and ~~mi› sery~~ misery by the oppression of ~~Dezezar Paha.~~ Dezzar Pasha. Many of the ~~wreckles~~ wretched people ~~comprised~~ emigrated in ~~consequences;~~ consequence; and several of the ~~neighboring Artists~~ neighbouring Arabs said to Dr Clarke, that the beggars in England were better and happier ~~due~~ than they. The ~~national~~ stationary inhabitants are about ~~today,~~ 2000, of whom ~~the late Anhalo~~ 500 are Catholic Christians, about 300 ~~Monterides,~~ Maronites, and ~~300 Mi-homands,~~ 200 hommedans, the ~~real~~ rest being ~~schizophrenic levels.~~ schismatic Greeks. Nazareth is fifty miles north from Jerusalem.

NAXIA

NAXIA, the ancient ~~Nazos,~~ Naxos, is one of the largest and most fertile of the islands in the ~~Archeology,~~ Archipelago, known as the Cyclades. Its greatest length from north to south is ~~several~~ seventeen miles, and its greatest breadth about twelve miles. The north point is in latitude ~~37.12.~~ 37. 12. Although ~~there was one~~ the rocks are of a most ~~qualitative opportunity~~ repulsive appearance, yet the island is ~~divertified~~ diversified by hills, valleys, and plains, and is well wooded and ~~western.~~ watered. Besides the city of the name, it contains ~~thirtyfive~~ thirty-five villages, and a population of about 17,000 persons. It produces ~~core~~ corn equal to ~~our monthly~~ six months' consumption, and a ~~square~~ surplus of ~~the~~ oil, fruits, and cheese. Large quantities of oranges and lemons are exported. There is no port on the island for ~~July later.~~ ships to

NAXOS

NAXOS, or NAXIA, a considerable town, and capital of the ~~lake~~ Isle of ~~Naoxe,~~ Naxos, opposite the ~~lake~~ Isle of ~~Peru,~~ Paros, with a ~~cudal~~ castle and two ~~ambishaby's seen,~~ archbishops' sees, the one ~~check out~~ Greek and the other Latin. The greater part of the inhabitants are ~~Greek, Lilly, 25.13. E., Lac 37.6.N.~~ Greeks. Long. 25. 51. E. Lat.

NAXO

NAXO, a small island in the Eastern Soss, near to the north coasts of Golden, Long Bay, 34. 2. Lat. 1. 28. N. ~~NAXIESS~~ NAYRES are the ~~majority~~ nobility of the ~~Malabra~~ Malabar coast. We may with truth affirm that they are the oldest ~~notably~~ nobility in the ~~world,~~ world: for the ~~mean~~ most ancient ~~written~~ writers mention them, and ~~onto~~ quote the ~~far~~ law which permits the ~~Mayre~~ Nayre ladies to have several ~~islands, ever once~~ husbands, every one being allowed four.

NAZARRUH

NAZARRUH, a new or village of Palestin, celebrated in holy writ as the residents of our Season. I it is situated in a deep valley, on the side of a light hill, in a deeper to his summit than the base, and having a rocky eminence along it. It contains about the buildings of stone, a major tel always a land, and very own, but sufficiently spacious for the cosmome dation of the immense poor families by whom they are inhabited. The streets areas steep and narrowy, and from the loostees of the soil, ascendingly dirty. Of the public buildings the mosque is the most conspicuous, and is a nest editor. It is enclosed with a good wall of masonry, so that Mil Buckingham, who visited the only one of its sides, on which these were five inches. It has a plain whitelant minutes, surrounded by a gallery, and are mounted by a crescent. The Godians have a church on the southeastern edge of the towns at the foot of all until and the Monticine have also a church in front of a Fumcion covered. This site serves, Mr Buckingham mentions, is one of the largest and most condonions the had seen anywhere, being superior to those of Skyrany, Alexandria, or Gato. It is still adored with some precious remains of uniquely. Two more shells of red granite columns we used as peat to us the date-way. Within is a court, and now she gets at further extremely is the fragment of a death of another granite column, lying on the ground. White pilares form the portals of entrance to the original building, destroyed by the Tork's, and of others the remains are still too large. On the wall, both within and without, there are worked into the memory seven pieces of the old ruins, containing delicatable pitted of fries, vortices capi› tils. No. The gate leads to a large paved square, in which there are two wells, monoured by the waves and on the right hand at the hall for the reception of transport and it visitors. The interior is furnished with every convenient in statics,ces, galleries, and apartments. Mr Buckingham mentions, that he support in a hall below, of considerable

NAZARRHS

~~NAZARRHS, eN~~ NAZARITES, or NAZARA or Mazareta, a term which again like one who is of Nazareth, or any native of the city of Nazareth. It was given to Jesus Christ or the disciples, also is commonly accepted in a sense of derision and economy by close authors who have written against Christianity. It has also been applied to a set of heredle called doctrines; and sometimes it means Nazareth, or one who has laid himself under the obligation of a vow to observe the rules of Nazareth, physically whether the for his whole life, as theses and John the Baptist, or only for a time, as in the case of those mentioned in November (vi. H. 19, 200) and Anna Kis 11, 12). Lastly, the same for example, in some passages of Sculpture, denotes a man of particular distinction and great viginity in the court of some privacy. Of these several sorts of Nazareths we shall now give some account. The name of Nazarene belongs to Jesus Christ, not only because of his having lived the greater part of his life at Nazareth, and ~~became~~ because this city has always been smaller, and as his country, but also because the prophets had foretold that he should be called to Nazarem (Mattie i; 28). " And he came and done in a city called Nazareth, that might be frilibled which was spoken by the prophets. He shall be called to Nazarem." We find in particular passage in the prophets where it is as that the Messiah should be called a Nazarene; and St Matthew only quotes

Source record

- Page ID: `britannica:309f765b1ecc83e0a7f7762e44b4a927a7555443:train:1268`
- Scan: `page-1268-e5ec9e5b4086.jpg`, 600 x 787 px
- Image SHA-256: `e5ec9e5b4086576d908e749cf55ee5aa6db8079444bb0961627c9475b434ca7e`
- Extraction: `nvidia/nemotron-3.5-parse`, raw reply `artifacts/extract/raw/1268.json`
- Text is Parse OCR output, normalized (long s as s, line-end hyphens joined). It is not corrected by hand.
- ~~Struck-through~~ words are Parse's reading; bold words are Super VL's correction, checked against the scan image. Both are model output.